

KYCK Online Cancellation Policy

Cancellation Policy

Due to the digital format of KYCK Online, all tickets are non-refundable. Please note that we cannot be responsible for any difficulties accessing the event due to your connection or other device issues.

We appreciate your understanding regarding the necessity of these policies. As a small, non-profit organisation with limited cash flow, we make plans and incur expenses based on the number of people we expect to attend our events. When these numbers change due to cancellations, our plans, budgets and ministry ability are all impacted.

Terms & Conditions

All viewers of this livestream event must be in possession of a paid ticket to the event. All host ticketholders of this event agree to ensure that each member of their group watching the livestream event is also in possession of a paid ticket to the event.

All viewers of this livestream event agree that they will not record, reproduce or redistribute this event or any portion of it for internal or external use.

All viewers will ensure that they have the appropriate device(s) and internet connection to successfully stream the event. KCC will not be responsible for difficulties accessing the streamed event due to device or internet connection issues.

This livestream event, including any associated interaction, chat or engagement within the stream feed, will be recorded in full by KCC. Katoomba Christian Convention Ltd reserves the right to use this material in part, or in full, for promotional, editorial and contextual purposes. Visual recordings may be included as part of recordings of KCC talks available for sale to members of the public and available on the KCC App. These audio and visual source recordings will be kept by KCC and accessed by KCC staff and other authorised KCC personnel.

You agree to accept these terms and conditions when you register for this event.